Royal Wedding Unites Famous European Families

Elaborate Preparations for Marriage of French Pretender's Daughter to Former Heir Presumptive to Italian Throne—Fetes Precede Ceremony—Groom Popular in Italy.

Naples, Italy, Nov. 4 (P).—Memories of the past glory of this city as the capital of a kingdom were revived today in festal for a royal wedding tomorrow when the stately and graceful daughter of the pretender to the throne of France marries the heir and heir presumptive of the Italian throne.

The heads of the various branches of the French Bourbon and the Italian Savoy families are gathering for the ceremony. King Alfonso of Spain arrived and was greeted by Prince Humbert of Italy in behalf of his father, King Victor Emmanuel, who was in Rome to see his new grandson, born Sunday to Princess Mafalda and Prince Philip of Savoie.

The bride-to-be, Princess Anne of France, 11-year old daughter of the Duke of Guise, self-exiled pretender to the throne of France, was introduced to the local nobility and society at a formal state dinner of 120 covers.

Groom, Cousin to King.

The prospective bridegroom, Prince Umberto of Savoy, Duke of Apulia, is cousin once removed of the King of Italy, will enter upon the marriage 400,000 lire (roughly $21,000), a sum richer by virtue of an annuity granted by the Italian government to him as a member of the ruling house having a share in the civil list.

The Duke distinguished himself as an aviator in Tripoli. A great bronze allegorical statue of the river Tiber surrounded by her tributary streams was the wedding gift of the city of Rome to the Duke. The statue is the work of the sculptor who was mayor of Rome during the war, the late Adolfo Apolloni.

Mussolini Detained at Rome.

Mussolini was forced to resign that part of the civil ceremony which is his under Italian law, the role of state registrar of the marriage. Affairs of state, which will come up at the reopening of the Chamber of Deputies in December, detained him at Rome. President Tomaso Tittoni of the Senate will act in his stead. Minister of Colonies Luigi Fedorini will act as crown prince at the civil ceremony which will be held at the royal palace of San Ferdinando, which belonged to the Bourbons who reigned over the Kingdom of the two Sicilies until Garibaldi conquered it in 1860.

Imposing Religious Ceremony.

After the civil ceremony the whole imposing array of nobility and other guests will repair across the square to the historic church of San Francesco di Paola, built in imitation of the Pantheon at Rome. There the religious ceremony will be performed and a magnificent feast will follow. Weeks of rehearsal have gone into the preparation of the musical program for this event.

But for the birth of Crown Prince Humbert in 1904, Princess Anne might be marrying the future king of Italy. The bridegroom's father, the Duke of Aosta, was from 1896 to 1904 heir presumptive to the Italian throne, the king and queen of Italy at that time being without male issue.

At the age of 23, the Duke of Apulia is the toast of all vacationists in Lido, near Venice, which is his favorite holiday resort. His democratic aims and love of a good time recall the memory of King Victor Emmanuel II and King Edward VII of England.

Barred from French Soil.

Although her father and his young son are now barred from French soil, Princess Anne and her mother are allowed to come and go freely. Just before coming to Italy for the wedding she was feted by aristocratic Paris society and placed a wreath on the tomb of the French Unknown Soldier.

Her father, the Duke of Guise, upon the death of his brother, the Duke of Orleans, in 1920, chose to go into exile from France although the present government assured him that the law, passed in 1915, would remain a dead letter as long as he did not engage in political activities.

Flood Wipes Out Village of Becket In the Berkshires

Twenty-five Buildings, Including All Industries, Destroyed as Reservoir Burst—Owner of Reservoir Gives Warning to Residents—One Woman Drowned.

Lee, Mass., Nov. 4 (P).—The little Berkshire hills village of Becket, 25 miles from here, was wiped out by flood waters from a bursting reservoir today, according to reports received at the barracks of the State Police here.

The disaster was accompanied by the loss of one life. A woman was drowned.

The reservoir, which impounded water for the supply of several villages between Lee and Westfield, broke at 10:30 a. m. Fears had been felt for its safety, and all of the villagers were warned in time to make their escape to high ground, although some who delayed in obeying the warnings had a hard time in forcing their way through the torrent that poured through the town.

Virtually every building in the village was destroyed and a long section of the tracks of the Boston & Albany Railroad was washed away. The reservoir was fed by water from the Westfield river, a turbulent stream which flows beside the state highway on the "Jacob's Ladder" route between Putnam and Springfield.

Becket is about nine miles north of the summit of the Ladder.

25 Buildings Destroyed.

Putnam, Mass., Nov. 4 (P).—Mrs. Gustine Carroll, 69, is believed to have been drowned when the Lyman reservoir broke away and wiped out the center of the town of Becket today. Twenty-five buildings, including all the industries, the postoffice and eight homes were destroyed. William Ballou, owner of the reservoir, saved many lives by hurrying to the center of the town to warn the residents after he had seen the reservoir on a hillside breaking away.

Two miles of the Boston & Albany main track was washed away. Two highway bridges were carried off. The Becket Silk Mill, Lyman's Saw Mill, the Basket Shop and Grist Mill were the industries wiped out.

RAILROAD MUST PAY FOR CROSSING IMPROVEMENT.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 4 (P).—A railroad company must take care of its tracks. The appellate division of the supreme court has handed down a decision compelling the Pennsylvania railroad to widen and straighten an alleged dangerous underpass crossing in Olean. The road has contended that the town should pay part of the cost.

Rain Increased Ashokan Basin Five Billions

Four Inches of Rain Fell, Filling Ashokan Reservoir to Within Twenty Billion Gallons of Capacity—Schoharie Reservoir Filled.

Four inches of rain had fallen up to 11 o'clock this morning, during the rain storm of Wednesday night, Thursday and the early morning hours of today, increasing the water in the Ashokan reservoir about five and one-half billion gallons. Owing to the heavy rain fall the reservoir is within twenty-billion gallons of being filled to capacity. At the present time the reservoir contains one hundred and twelve billion gallons, while the total capacity is one hundred and thirty-two billion gallons.

The west basin is within eight billion gallons of being full and the east basin is within two billion gallons. The Schoharie reservoir is reported as being filled to capacity.

The actual increase in the Ashokan reservoir due to the storm is one and a half billion gallons.

NIAGARA FALLS, ONTARIO.

HAS DISASTEROUS FIRE

Niagara Falls, Ont., Nov. 4 (P).—Fire early today swept the McChesney Block, a three-story brick building opposite the city hall, which houses stores and apartments. The loss was placed at nearly $100,000. The interior of the building was gutted. Fearing that the whole north and business section of the city would be wiped out, heads of the local fire department appealed to Niagara Falls, New York, for aid and two pumps and an extension ladder truck with their crews were sent from the other side.

STANDSTILL IN STORM.

SAVED BY SALVAGE BOAT

Copenhagen, Denmark, Nov. 4 (P).—The American steamship Schenectady, bound from Gothenburg, Sweden, to New York, was refloated today by a salvage boat that went to the ship's rescue after the stranding on the rocks at Vigua, near Gothenburg, last night in heavy weather.

The Schenectady, which carried a cargo of piece goods and paper pulp, sustained some damage in the stranding and must be docked for a survey and repairs.

Floods Compel Canal Closing.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 4 (P).—Because of flood conditions the State Department of Public Works today ordered closed the Barge Canal east of Amsterdam and the entire Champlain Canal.

Cave-in Compels Detour, Truck Breaks Bridge

One of Hoy's Catekill Trucks Loaded With A. & P. Groceries Went Through Planking of Elmendorf Street Bridge When Forced to Detour by Albany Avenue Cave-in.

This morning about 7 o'clock one of the big Mack trucks owned by J. J. Hoy, Jr., of Catskill, and driven by Bernard O'Brien, went through the planking of the Elmendorf street bridge over the Ulster & Delaware railroad tracks. The truck was loaded with groceries for the A. & P. stores in this city. Before the truck could be released the load was transferred to Van Ert & Hogan's trucks.

Cave-in Forces Detour.

Thursday afternoon during the heavy rain fall there occurred a big cave-in of the roadbed at the intersection of Albany and Manor avenues. The cave-in covered about ten square feet and as the rain continued falling it gradually grew wider and deeper.

So bad was the cave-in that the city authorities were forced to have men on duty all night directing traffic to detour. It was impossible to proceed through Albany avenue owing to the cave-in. Detour signs will be placed and the detour continued until it is possible to repair the roadbed.

It is said that the depth of the cave-in is full twenty feet. It occurred over the spot where sewer and water mains were recently laid.

Coy Truck Was Detouring.

The big Mack truck was proceeding into the city by way of Albany avenue when forced to detour by the cave-in, and was proceeding through Elmendorf street toward Broadway. The truck had almost passed over the bridge when the right rear wheel suddenly cut through the heavy planking, bringing the truck to a sudden stop.

Policeman A. J. Dempsey who was in the vicinity immediately notified police headquarters and officers were sent to the scene. The police also notified the board of public works and the Ulster & Delaware railroad officials of the accident.

No one was injured. The truck was loaded with about 600 packages for the A. & P. stores and the packages were transferred to the truck of Van Ert & Hogan for delivery to the stores.

QUAKE FELT ALONG CALIFORNIA COAST

Los Angeles, Nov. 4 (P).—An earthquake of moderate intensity was felt along the California coast from Santa Maria to Santa Barbara from 5:52 a. m. to 5:55 a. m. today. Telephone reports reaching here from Ventura described the quake there as being of about one minute's duration starting at 5:52.

Storms and Floods Sweep New York and New England

Rondout Creek Over Its Banks

The Rondout creek overflowed its banks this morning due to the heavy rain fall that started Wednesday night and which has continued intermittently since then. In many places the creek waters were nearly up to the docks in Poughkeepsie. The water rose exceptionally high. Where the docks were low they were under water. One end of the Island Dock was also submerged by the high water. No damage was done by the high water as far as could be ascertained.

Streets and sidewalks about town were covered with water on Thursday and the sewers in many streets were unable to carry off the water, so heavy was the rain fall. Flooded streets were also due to the large amount of fallen leaves that blocked the entrance to the catch basins. Many flooded cellars were also reported in the city.

No Floods on Esopus.

The rain caused the Esopus creek in the mountains to raise to a considerable height but no flood conditions resulted. So far as is known there was no damage from high water. By noon the rain had stopped and the waters of the Esopus had started to fall.

Kingston was visited by a very unusual brand of weather during the morning. Rain fell but about 8 o'clock the sun came from behind the clouds and there was a brilliant rainbow in the north. Within a few minutes sleet and rain were again falling and this was followed by a resumption of the rain which fell until about 11 o'clock.

BOYLE'S THIRTY ACRES TO BE FACTORY SITE.

Jersey City, Nov. 4 (P).—Over the spot on Boyle's thirty acres where Dempsey battered Carpenter senseless under a torrid July sun in 1921, a factory is to rise for the manufacture of cans.

Rumors that Tex Rickard might erect a stadium to replace the wooden one, where more than 90,000 fans paid the third biggest day of ring history to which the Managers Mauler knocked out France's man of destiny, were swept aside today with the announcement by John F. Boyle, owner of the thirty acres, that the American Can company intended to buy a "big part" of the field.

Valley Sections of Eastern New York Face Worst Flood Menace in Years—Wide Areas in Northern and Western New England Lay Waste—Washington County Hard Hit—Hudson River Ten Feet Over Normal Level at Albany.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 4 (P).—The valley sections of eastern New York today faced the worst flood menace in many years. Swollen by heavy rains of nearly forty-eight hours, the water courses emptying into the Mohawk and Hudson rivers were discharging tremendous torrents of water from the watershed that extends from the Adirondacks to the Berkshires.

The eastern section of Rensselaer county was particularly hard hit. Along the Lebanon valley many bridges were swept away, farms were under water and the residents were forced to move to higher grounds. The villages of Petersburg, Berlin, Stephen town and Lebanon were threatened by the overflow from the Little Hudson river. Further to the north, high water in the Hoosick river caused the shutdown of the power plants of the New York Power and Light Company at Johnsonville and Schaghticoke.

To the southward, in the Kinderhook Lake region, many creeks broke over their banks, and farm lands and highways in the lower sections were submerged. At Kinderhook Lake several summer cottages were swept from their foundations.

Several families living on front of a number of families marooned by street, in the village of Waterford, a swiftly rising current.

Ten Feet Above Normal.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 4 (P).—Fed by the flood waters of its many tributary streams, the Hudson river was ten feet above its normal level here today. It was feared that unless the waters subsided soon, the property loss would be heavy. Streets along the waterfront were under water, and the wharves of the steamboat companies operating between this city and New York were submerged.

Quay street, which runs parallel to the river, was under a foot and a half of water. Near the Union Station the flood had spread across the flats and threatened to cross the tracks of the Delaware & Hudson railroad and flow into Maiden Lane.

Heavy Loss at Whitehall.

Glens Falls, N. Y., Nov. 4 (P).—The worst flood conditions in the history of Washington county were reported today.

Whitehall, at the southern end of Lake Champlain, suffered heavy loss. At least $150,000 damage was caused when rising water covered the machinery and manufactured silk at the Champlain Silk Mill. Workers on the night shift were removed from the building in row boats.

Firemen took several persons from a canal boat that had been pounding against the retaining wall at the Barge Canal terminal at Whitehall. All of the electrical equipment for operating the canal lock was removed from the power house. The flood over the crest of the lock was six feet high. The basements of many stores and houses on Main street were flooded. The state highway between Whitehall and Comstock was impassable.

In the southeastern corner of Washington county flood conditions prevailed at Salem and West Hebron, due to the overflowing of Wood Creek. This city and Warren county, which are on higher ground, escaped serious damage.

White Eight Feet Higher.

White River Junction, Vt., Nov. 4 (P).—The rain-swollen White river which runs through this village was eight feet higher today than the previous record high mark and had caused hundreds of thousands of dollars of damage. Railroad service at this point, one of the busiest junctions in New England, was at a standstill.

Storm Disturbed Electric Service.

A tree down at Mingo Hollow and a fallen limb on Wilbur Avenue interrupted service on "Brewster Line"—Gas Service Undisturbed.

A fallen tree in Mingo Hollow and a tree limb blown down on Wilbur Avenue interrupted electric service on what is known as the "Brewster Line" serving the powder works at Port Ewen and one of the local boat yards. This was the only interruption to service, due to the storm, reported by the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Company today.

While the local gas distribution was not disturbed the storm held up progress on the construction work in enlarging the gas plant in Poughkeepsie which will distribute gas not only to local consumers but also to Saugerties and Wadsworth.

The heavy rain got into the trenches that had been dug and has held up progress on the construction work. The rain, however, did not interrupt the gas service to local consumers who received their supply through the city gas mains as usual.

Ambulance Calls Thursday.

The city ambulance made two calls on Thursday, removing Joseph Schiff from 744 Broadway to the Benedictine Hospital, and Mrs. Sadie Benedictine from 223 West Chester street to the Benedictine Hospital.

Our Growing Population.

The following births have been reported to the board of health: Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ward, 21 German street, a son, William Francis, at Benedictine Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Morgan, 12 West Union street, a daughter, Bernice, at Benedictine Hospital.

Some Old Proverbs That Apply to Promises and Performances

Mayor Dempsey is not making promises. He made one promise when he became Mayor. That promise was that he would faithfully discharge the duties of the office to the best of his ability. That promise was sworn to and is a part of the official oath of office required of all public officials.

That promise has been kept and the keeping of it is a matter of official record. In the year he has been Mayor, as in the preceding years that he was Alderman-at-Large, Mr. Dempsey has attended every board meeting and performed every other duty of the office. As Mayor, he did this without one cent of pay.

Judge Schirick is making promises, many of them publicly. He, also, made a promise when he became City Judge that he would faithfully discharge the duties of the office to the best of his ability. This promise was sworn to and was a part of the oath he had to take before he could begin to draw the salary of $2,000 a year the taxpayers paid him.

Although in checking up Judge Schirick's record of performance he was given the benefit of every doubt, it was found that he had been absent from duty 119 days in his last term as City Judge. These 119 days do not include days on which he was at the City Hall part of the time, nor do they include hearings on adjournment at which he may have been, but probably was not, present.

There is an old proverb that "Handsome is as Handsome does."

There is another that "Acts speak louder than words."

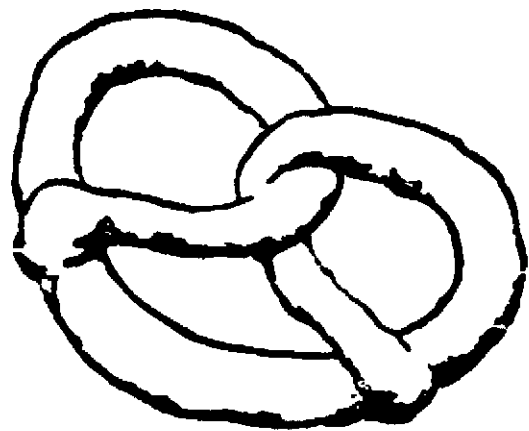

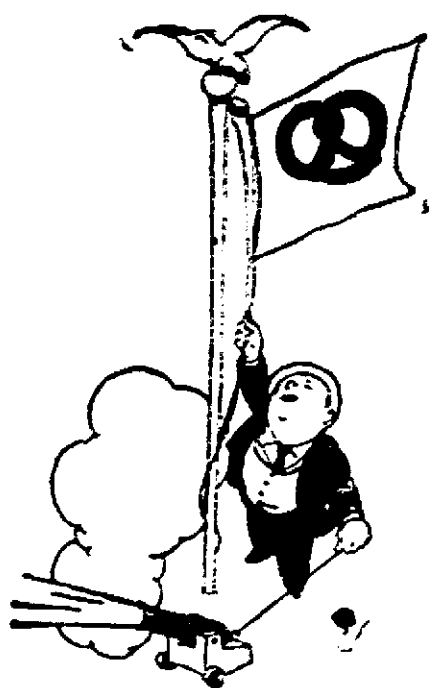

Promises and prettiness cannot take the place of performance of duty.

Fall-Sinclair Trial in January

Washington, Nov. 4 (P).—Albert B. Fall and Harry F. Sinclair will face a new jury in the District of Columbia Supreme court on Monday, January 15, on a charge of conspiracy in connection with the leasing of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve.

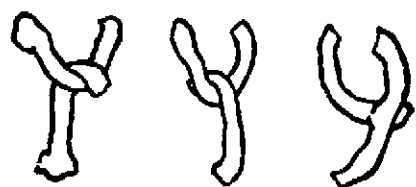

The date for the new trial was fixed by Justice Siders while a grand jury was going into the government charges involving the Burns department and Edward J. Kidwell, the juror accused of indiscreet conversation about the case. William J. Burns, head of the Burns agency, and his son, W. Sherman Burns, have been summoned to bring records of the agency to Washington for scrutiny on Monday.

Votes for Lyons And Kelder Will Insure Good Roads

Taxpayers of the Town of Olive Will Return Chester A. Lyons as Supervisor and John W. Kelder, Town Superintendent.

Taxpayers of the town of Olive are looking forward to Election Day, November 8, when they can cast their votes for John W. Kelder for town superintendent of highways and for Chester A. Lyons for supervisor. The reason for their eagerness to elect these men is obvious—The highways are in better condition and taxes are lower. When they were elected to their respective offices the voters of the town of Olive expected better road improvement and lower taxes, but the records of these two men have far surpassed the most exacting voter.

To the voters of the third district Mr. Kelder promises to build the county road that is on the map, according to specifications.

The voters of the first and second districts will see the crusher in operation next spring if Mr. Kelder is elected.

The town has at last something to work with and if Chester A. Lyons is returned to the board of supervisors he will as before secure funds to do the work.

Last year Road No. 20 was finished and Road No. 21 was started and the work is still progressing. This year nearly two miles of road work has been completed and approved by county officials in charge. Voters are urged to inspect this work.

Taxes last year were $10,000 less and this year they will be lower.

Chester A. Lyons has made the best record of any supervisor in the town of Olive. He was told by many that it could not be done, but he was not easily discouraged and he has proven his worth.

Superintendent Kelder has done all in his power to finish the work that was started several years ago. It is finished. He is also doing everything possible now to finish the work under construction. After the present road is completed the next one on the map will be started.

In the thirty years previous to 1925 the town of Olive received but $6,000 state and county aid for the improvement of roads. In the past two years $36,000 has been received. The funds have been spent in Olive. The roads are there to prove it. In the town the men have had the work.

There is much more to be said but this is not enough to insure the reelection of John W. Kelder for town superintendent and Chester A. Lyons for supervisor.

Harvard-Penn Princeton-Ohio Leading Contests

Neither Game, However Has Any Relative Importance Towards Settlement of Eastern Supremacy—Other Games Saturday Cover Wide Range and May Develop Interesting Results.

New York, Nov. 4 (AP).—While Harvard's clash with Pennsylvania and Princeton's stand against an Ohio State invasion occupied a big portion of tomorrow's eastern football card, only the result of the Tiger fracas gives promise of disclosing what may be expected in the final days of the campaign.

As a matter of fact, neither game has any relative importance towards the settlement of eastern supremacy. The Crimson trek to Franklin Field takes on a colorful tint because it is a renewal of traditional rivalry after a lapse of 22 years.

Thus far, the Quakers have labored on through sheer grit alone for most of the stars were crippled early in the season. Penn has lost successively to Penn State, Chicago and Navy.

On the other hand, the Crimson tide has been in and out. Harvard was jolted by Purdue and Dartmouth but came back for the measure of Holy Cross and Indiana.

Coach Horween moves on to Philadelphia without any injured list in hopes of avenging the defeat from Penn in 1905.

Not a Major Contest. Supplementing the customary opening of the "Big Three" series with Princeton opposed to Harvard, the Tiger is pitted against the Buckeyes. Although the game figures as a major contest on Princeton's schedule, it carries only intercollegiate flavor. Thus far, the bright spot of Ohio State's campaign has been a victory over Chicago.

Coach Roper's squad has been undefeated but its opponents heretofore were not considered as worthy rivals. Tomorrow's tussle is expected to throw light on just what kind of a team Roper has developed this year.

Yale Anticipates No Trouble. Yale anticipates no trouble from Maryland which promises to furnish the bulldog with a "warming up" encounter for the Princeton battle a week hence which will go down as a so-called eastern championship affair. The Blue has a defeat from Princeton of a year ago to eradicate.

Alone of all big machines in the east, Yale has met and disposed of contenders along the title trail. The Blue rolled over Army, Brown and Dartmouth and needs a victory over Princeton to pad out a successful season. As the Green clipped Harvard at the outset, the Crimson is not figured to be dangerous for the Blue.

Dartmouth, it is conceded, has edge over the Brown Bear on the basis of the ill fortune which befell the Bruins against Lebanon Valley and Temple. Last year Brown walked over the Green, but with Lane and Marsters as the heavy threats, the Providence aggregation will have its hands full.

Kicking Duel Expected. Ken Strong of New York University is likely to figure in another great kicking duel against Carnegie Tech. Last year the Skibo team was the only outfit to defeat Notre Dame and it was the only squad on which the Violet failed to score a touchdown. Strong's two field goals won. Harpster will be the pivot of the Carnegie Tech kicking formations.

Outstanding in the metropolitan district will be the annual combat between Holy Cross and Fordham. Since 1901 the teams have met fifteen times with the count seven victories apiece and one tie.

Several new plays will be worked out by Columbia against Johns Hopkins. With Fred Reiger's condition back to normal, Crowley will have all his regulars available for the fray with the Baltimore eleven.

Other Games. Intensive training to cope against an aerial attack has been stressed at Syracuse in preparation for the tilt with Ohio Wesleyan. While Cornell faces St. Bonaventure, a minor opponent, Doyle figures on trying out some new formations to be used against Dartmouth the following Saturday. Hobart has indicated a strong line to present against Colgate.

The Army and Navy meet setups. The Cadets rocked Franklin and Marshall by 55 to 0 last season while the Middies tripped West Virginia Wesleyan by 52 to 7.

Joesting Crashes the Line With an Antiquated Flivver

Herbert Joesting, All American Fullback.

It was bought by a rural mail carrier in 1912 as a rebuilt job and all trace of its actual stature has disappeared.

"The Spirit of Owatonna," Herb calls it. And he hasn't overlooked any of the standard collegiate inscriptions: "Dis Squeals," "Why Girls Leave Home," "I Do Not Choose to Run," "Where Angels Fear to Tread," "Be Your Age," "The Who Hides and Skates Away May Hide to Skate Another Day."

Understand, though, that the terrific Mr. Joesting doesn't devote all of his waking moments to the proposition of making touchdowns and his flivver run. Excepting the football season he is a teller in the First National bank. He may permanently become a banker when he grows up, although he has ambitions to become the world's champion log-roller. He entered several log-rolling contests in a lumber camp last summer and intends to enter the world's championship tournament next year.

The comment about Joesting being a flivver addict mustn't be construed as a dirty dig. Quite the contrary. For we are told that after every game in Minneapolis Herb leaps into the contraption and takes off for Owatonna for an over-Sunday visit with his father, his mother, his brothers and his sisters. Which isn't a bit frivolous and is a nice thing for any hero to do.

Red Shields Won First Game

The Red Shields won their first game of the season against the Triangles of the Y. M. C. A. at the Salvation Army court, North Front street, Thursday night 62-36. The Saugettes All-Stars, scheduled to meet the Salvation team instead of the Triangles, did not come to Kingston owing to the adverse traveling conditions.

The Red Shields did most of their valuable point collecting in the final half of the game. They scored 42 frommen in the second stanza while the Triangles registered 17. Both teams made a valiant fight for supremacy in the opening half and when the intermission whistle tooted the score stood 20-19 with the Salvationists holding the one point lead.

Dan Joyce and Jimmy Merritt, big factors in bringing the Red Shields to the front last season, again proved their ability as court performers against the Triangles. Merritt led the scorers with 24 points while Joyce contributed 20 markers to the total. Joe Blass did the major point collecting for the Triangles. He got 17 points.

The score:

	FB.	FP.	TP.
Red Shields:
Joyce, rf.	10	0	20
Merritt, lf.	10	2	24
Hyatt, c.	4	1	9
DuBois, rf.	4	1	9
Knight, lg.	0	0	0
Total	28	6	62

Triangles:

	FB.	FP.	TP.
Blass, rf.	8	1	17
Lerry, lf.	1	0	3
Kennedy, c.	3	0	6
Ruman, lg.	1	0	2
Glenon, rg.	0	1	1
Craw, rg.	1	0	2
Total	17	2	36

Score at end of first half—Red Shields, 20; Triangles, 19. Referee—Corregan. Timekeeper—Dulin.

Seven members of this year's Yale football squad are brothers of former All players who won their Y's on the gridiron.

It is rumored that when a golfer cried "Fore!" the other day, an antique collector in the gallery thought he was auctioning his brassie.

Pittsburgh fans presented Ruth with a saxophone. And there, we'll bet, goes the framework for many a gossip yarn—that Babe is on another toot.

Some humorous opportunities have been overlooked. It still remains to be remarked that Tunney is no poor fish and that he refused to be "canood."

All football teams are in such a terrible state just as they are about to engage their adversary—that about bruises, boils and broken bones—it seems strange that college authorities allow them to take the field.

Is There Anything New? The surgical instruments of the ancient world were really wonderful. Those found at Pompeii deprive modern science of the credit of more than one invention. Needles, probes and forceps resemble closely those in use at the present day.

Receipts Small, Wouldn't Fight

Joe Dundee of Baltimore Claimed He Had Been Guaranteed $60,000—Total Receipts Were $51,000—Faced Discipline by Boxing Commission.

Los Angeles, Nov. 4 (AP).—Ace Hudkins, Nebraska fighter, vigorously claimed the welterweight championship today while the recognized titleholder, Joe Dundee of Baltimore, faced possible discipline by the California Boxing Commission, which called their scheduled ten round title fight here last night a no-contest affair because of the failure of Dundee to appear in the ring.

While 17,000 fans boomed, milled about and even started rioting, the champion remained in an unnamed hotel. His manager, Max Waxman, declared the champion would not appear until $60,000 which had been guaranteed him by Dick Donald, the promoter, had been paid.

At the end of an hour and a half, during which police riot squads had to be called to keep order among the disgruntled spectators, and Hudkins had appeared in the ring, fighting togs so he could technically claim the title, the challenger put on his street clothes and the boxing commission said admissions would be refunded.

Waxman said he based his claim for $60,000 upon an unofficial contract with the promoter. The boxing commission declared the only contract it knew anything about provided Dundee with a percentage of the gate and not a fixed sum. Waxman replied that the official contract at Niagara Falls tomorrow, understood from the commission trip, De Paul's first long jaunt records that Dundee was to receive away from home this season.

Special Train For Rooters. Chicago, Nov. 4 (AP).—A special train load of rooters is planned to accompany the De Paul University team when they leave tonight for their game against Niagara University at Niagara Falls tomorrow. Twenty-four players will make the trip. De Paul's first long jaunt records that Dundee was to receive away from home this season.

British Heavyweight Makes His Premier. New York, Nov. 4 (AP).—Phil Scott, British heavyweight champion, makes his premier American bow in Madison Square Garden tonight against Knute Hansen in the main ten round go. Scott is counting on a victory to ride him through to an extensive campaign in this country. He has been installed an 8 to 5 favorite. Jack Dempsey, who boxed Scott in an exhibition in England several years ago, will be at the ringside.

WHAT HAPPENED IN THE ROPED ARENA LAST NIGHT. (By The Associated Press.) Pittsburgh—Harry Simms, Canton, Ohio, won from Harry Dudley, Pittsburgh, 10 rounds.

Los Angeles—Jackie Fields, Los Angeles, won from Joey Silver, San Francisco, 10 rounds. Vince Dundee, Baltimore, knocked out Eddie Mahoney, 2 rounds.

Saginaw, Mich.—Johnny Mellow, Detroit, outpointed Eddie Dyer, Terre Haute, Ind., 10 rounds.

37% per cent of the gate and Hudkins 12% per cent. Long before the time for the main event arrived Donald discovered that the total receipts amounted to only about $54,000.

YOUNG JUDEAN TEAM ISSUES CHALLENGE

The Young Judean Basketball team has reorganized for the coming season and issues a challenge to all teams in the city and vicinity who are in the 130-135 pound class.

The Judeans again will have the coaching of Mr. Reuben who led them to such a successful season last year with 16 wins and only 4 losses.

Coach Reuben will have the same team as last year and expects to have another good season. The team consists of "Captain" "Vic" Alcon, H. Pearlman, H. Sussin, S. Frier, C. Bahl, S. Balinsky and J. Basch.

Teams wishing games can get in touch with Manager Milton Ball, 50 East Strand, phone 1563-W.

WESLEYAN ELITES PREPARE FOR STRUCK

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Ohio Wesleyan's football squad worked out at Archbold stadium here this morning in final preparation for their intercollegiate game with Syracuse here Saturday. The Battling Bishops, 23 strong, arrived here from Delaware, Ohio, in a special Pullman this morning.

Coach George Gauthier sent his men through a light drill this morning evidently intended merely to limber them up after their long train ride last night.

Robert Tilton, tackle, the only man on the present Ohio Wesleyan team who played throughout the 1925 Syracuse-Ohio Wesleyan game, was named today by Coach Gauthier as the Ohio Wesleyan captain for the game with Syracuse.

The Ohio Wesleyan team elects no captain but the coaches appoint a captain for each game. Tilton, who has twice been selected as an all-Ohio tackle, was a considerable factor in the 1925 game in which the Battling Bishops tied Syracuse 3 to 3 and registered the first score of the season against the Orange.

K. H. S. Ready For Middletown

Kingston High School football team is practicing with added vigor for their game with the Middletown High team Saturday at the Fair Grounds. Coach Kias had his warriors out for signal and scrimmage practice. The backfield men were given plenty to do in the practice sessions this week and the Maroon and White linemen did not present a sprightly appearance when Coach Kias ended the drills each evening.

Kingston High School's second or scrub team has been used extensively during the practice sessions and the huskies on this eleven have been giving the varsity a tough battle during each meeting.

Newburgh Academy team is preparing earnestly for the game with the Poughkeepsie High School eleven a week from Saturday. Although the game is not to be held until November 12 at Poughkeepsie the Hill City team is getting in shape early. Their practice sessions last about ninety minutes daily and in order to get the fullest of coaching the eleven does the grid togs every morning before school.

The Newburghers are devoting considerable time to the art of forward passing and the backs have manifested much improvement in tossing the pigskin. The Newburgh line is taking every advantage and precaution in order to be in "stone wall" shape for the Poughkeepsie attack November 12.

Humbert Fugazy agrees with George Jessel "Luckies are the ideal cigarettes"

The popular Fight Promoter is telling his matchmaker, "Doc" Bagley, that Lucky Strikes are the finest cigarettes.

You, too, will find that LUCKY STRIKES give the greatest pleasure—Mild and Mellow, the finest cigarettes you ever smoked. Made of the choicest tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"IT'S TOASTED"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

"It's toasted"

No Throat Irritation—No Cough.

George Jessel, Favorite Stage Star, writes:

"After many years on the vaudeville and legitimate stage, I am emphatic in saying that Lucky Strikes are the only cigarettes which gave me complete relaxation and enjoyment with no attending harm to my voice. For this reason I smoke only Luckies. To me it is the ideal cigarette."

PALESTINE JEWS EXPECT MESSIAH

Look for Coming of Super-man Who Will Put End to Next World War.

New York—A new Messiah who will become king of the Jewish nation and whose appearance will put an end to the next world war is expected by the orthodox Jews of Palestine.

They declare that he will be a super-man and that his kingdom will be a great center from which will radiate peace and brotherhood extending throughout the entire world.

The revelation of the Messiah will be preceded by the rebuilding of the temple, they say, adding that this will cause the coming of many nations, especially those of the Moslem world. The last world war will focus itself in Palestine, and at the critical moment when all appears lost the Messiah coming from heaven, will gain a decisive victory, according to the prediction. It is said he will immediately be proclaimed king, the first king of the Jewish nation in 20 centuries.

50,000 Jews Believe.

Of the 150,000 Jews in Palestine, most of whom have returned there from the four corners of the earth since the war, at least 50,000 are expecting developments to rapidly transpire until at an unexpected moment the Messiah will be revealed. "The Jews are praying every day for the coming of the Messiah," declared the president of the town council of Peta Tikva, the largest Jewish agricultural colony in Palestine.

"The Jews believe that some time a Messiah will come who will bring good not only to the Jews but to the whole world," remarked D. Smithson, who was decorated for distinguished service in Palestine during the war. "This idea is spreading throughout the country," he continued.

The movement to Palestine, the settling on the land and the building up of the Jewish national home, is the forerunner of the Messiah," declared Ephraim Sacks, formerly of Chicago, now president of the town council of the beautiful orange-producing colony, Rehovoth.

The ideal of the restoration of the temple just prior to the coming of the Messiah is soon to be realized, they hope. Ever since the destruction of their last temple, in 70 A. D., by the Roman Emperor Titus, the Jews have gathered daily at the famous "wailing wall" in Jerusalem praying for the rebuilding of the temple. The invasion of the Moslems in the 12th century resulted in the erection of the Mosque of Omar, the third most sacred shrine of performance of the sacred rites of the ruined temple.

"The Mosque of Omar will be torn down soon and a wonderful temple the Solomon's shall be built there," happily exclaimed a rabbi as he was looking out over the temple area from a balcony of his synagogue.

Many are widespread that the spiritual parts of the temple have already been prepared in various countries and are to be transported to Palestine and assembled at a moment's notice.

A report to League of Nations.

A group of Jerusalem Jews has recently sent a petition to the League of Nations asking for a portion of the land to be set aside for the rebuilding of the temple. The petition is being forwarded to the League of Nations by the League of Nations.

The League of Nations has not yet decided whether or not to accept the petition. It is expected that the League will accept the petition and that the rebuilding of the temple will be a reality in the near future.

Jerusalem in the near future," declared one of the largest manufacturers in Jerusalem. "The leaders of the Jews sense the situation but they are afraid to express their opinions publicly," he remarked.

The circumstances making possible a war in Palestine will be the withdrawal of the British administration. It is believed. The secretary of a synagogue in Jerusalem said to me: "The Jews have been waiting 2,000 years for England's help, but the English won't always remain here. A certain rabbi making a prophecy 700 years ago foretold that the English would come into Palestine in 1916, but he also stated that they would leave Palestine before the expiration of a quarter of a century. This is yet to be fulfilled. Then, he says, that there will be a big war here. The last world war will focus itself in Palestine. The kings of the earth shall fight against the Jews in Palestine, but the Messiah will come and cause the enemy to be utterly defeated."

"The Messiah will be recognized as the great world leader, the law of the Lord shall flow out of Zion, and nations will learn of war no more," the rabbis firmly maintain.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press.)

New York—Whether the creator of Sherlock Holmes is easily fooled is a matter of dispute between him and Howard Thurston. Denying as persons made by the magician, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle has written the New York World: "Apparently he thinks it is easy to fool his audience, but he certainly never fooled me," which Mr. Thurston rejoined: "I was at dinner at the same table with him and played tricks on him such as pulling cards out of his nose."

The magician insisted that Sir Arthur once explained a Houdini box trick by saying that Houdini integrated his body, slipped through a keyhole and reassembled himself. And Thurston regards this as proof that Sir Arthur is astonishingly easy to fool.

Rome—Mussolini likes Howard Chandler Christy's work. Having just finished a portrait of the Duce's office, the artist has been invited to do another at the premier's winter home.

New York—William Stewart, Jr., 25, three years out of college, will be one of the youngest members of the Stock Exchange if the board of governors permits him to pay the highest price ever for a seat—$270,000. He has offered that sum to Walter L. Ross. Deals for sale of the seat to others at $271,000, $236,000 and $200,000 have fallen through.

Beaver—A hunger strike is protest against a husband's absence has been broken. Mrs. Elsie Chase sued for divorce. Her husband up and left. Mrs. Chase said he had no right to. Then she and her 12 year old daughter fasted 31 days till police and humane officers broke open locked doors and took mother and daughter to a hospital.

New York—Religion in war time, as the Rev. Dr. Francis P. Duffy puts it, loses three-fourths of its theology. When he was watching Tunney on the floor at Soldier Field, somebody shouted at him: "Pray, Father Duffy, damn it, pray." "I started to pray," the priest explained at a banquet, "but suddenly stopped. I thought it wasn't fair for an Irishman to have help in a fight."

Chicago—A homeless collier in Evanston prefers blondes. Every time he sees one he backs joyfully till he finds she is not his missing mistress. The dog is held by the humane society while club women are trying to locate the owner who presumably is far away.

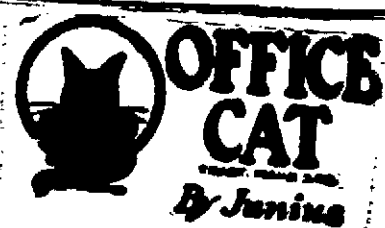

Hollywood, Cal.—Ben Lyons of the screen says that he and Marilyn Miller until recently Mrs. Jack Pickford, "have an understanding." For detail he refers to Miss Miller, if anybody can't guess what he means.

Newport, R. I.—A fashionable wedding is the reward to a butler and a maid for faithful service. Arthur Fuller and his bride, the former Elizabeth Latimer, could scarcely have had a more elaborate affair were they children of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Eppley, their employers. At the Eppley home there was a reception which many of the society colony attended.

New York—The role of a society girl in a Broadway production is being played by a society girl who has been intent on a career. Miss Allis Dwyer, after a fashionable debut five years ago, studied chemistry and medicine, taught school, then went on the stage.

Hollywood, Cal.—Though she "coffee-potted" him Mrs. Martin Jensen is going to try to get along with her aviator husband. Efforts by the police brought about a reconciliation. "Yes," she explained, "I coffee-potted Martin, if that is what they call tossing a coffee pot at him."

Farmer's Diary Covers 57 Years

Volumes Cover Period From 1810 to 1897—Tells About Conditions in General and About Agriculture.

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 4.—A farmer's diary in five volumes, covering 57 years from 1810 to 1897, kept by W. W. Squires of North Valley in Oswego, N. Y., has been added to the library of the State College of Agriculture here.

Some typical entries from the diary are:

Aug. 10, 1841—Commented on dling oats.

May 14, 1841—Fast day on account of the death of President Harrison.

Oct. 23, 1840—Drewed 1150 lbs. cheese and 357 lbs. butter.

Sept. 20, 1841—Drewed 100 lbs. of potatoes to Mr. Herrick for shoe making.

Apr. 19, 1861—Went to Oswego yesterday with $1 dozen of eggs for John Campbell and sold them for 50 cents a dozen.

Apr. 25, 1861—They are enlisting today at Fulton and Oswego to go south.

Mr. Squires went to war, but kept his diary each day. After the war he tells about the big depression of 1893; twenty years later he speaks of the panic of 1893.

Mar. 15, 1893—Took to town Maria's 12 pairs of mittens but could not sell them.

May 18, 1893—Bought a suit at Wilcox, Oswego, for $10.

Professor James E. Boyle, of the department of agricultural economics, who tells about the diary, says it gives a true picture of the times, not only of farming but of social, religious, economic and political conditions. It tells about family life, gives farm prices and tells of farm practices. Diaries such as this are of great value to the college.

Professor Boyle asks newspapers to make known to readers that old diaries, or journals, for account books will add those who have in the subject of agricultural economics at the college of agriculture. Those who have such books are requested to report them to Professor James E. Boyle at the College of Agriculture at Ithaca, N. Y.

Marbletown Has Ideal Candidate

Frederick Davis, Republican Candidate for Supervisor, Has Accomplished Big Things for Taxpayers of Town and Deserves Re-election.

FREDERICK DAVIS

Frederick Davis of Stone Ridge has represented the town of Marbletown in the board of supervisors for three terms and during that time the taxpayers of the town have observed the benefits of having a representative in the board who was competent and capable of representing the town in a most efficient manner. To continue Mr. Davis in the board of supervisors is to continue the very successful representation of the town in the board. He is a man experienced in business affairs and his record in the board is his best recommendation. During the past five years he has been in the board of supervisors he has saved the taxpayers over $20,000 by a lower rate of equalization. This alone should warrant the very careful consideration of the taxpayers. However, during his administration of town affairs there have been many other instances where Mr. Davis has displayed his ability to represent the people of his home community.

Born and brought up on the farm established by his grandfather, Frederick Davis, he has always been a resident of the town of Marbletown and is entirely familiar with the needs of the town. As a poultryman and fruit grower of the town he is vitally interested in town affairs. He has always taken an active interest in the affairs of his town and as a member of the Farm Bureau and the Stone Ridge Grange he has always been active in rural affairs.

Frederick Davis was elected to the board of supervisors in 1921. He immediately began to work for the betterment of conditions in his town and his record for the past five years and more shows that he has been very successful in representing his town. Fully and honestly represented his town. He has managed the town affairs in a most economical and business-like manner, giving the people of the town a most efficient administration.

Not only in his town but throughout the county he has the respect and confidence of the people. This was demonstrated when in his second term he was selected as chairman of the board of supervisors, an honor which is seldom extended to younger members of the board, and the first time the chairmanship of the board had been held by a local farmer from the town of Marbletown in 45 years.

His Work for the Taxpayers. During his term he has secured for the town of Marbletown a lower rate of equalization for the year 1926 than it ever before enjoyed. Through this effort he has saved the taxpayers a very considerable amount.

Referring to a tabulated statement of equalization and values, verified by Henry R. DeWitt, clerk of the board of supervisors, it will be seen that during his five years in the board he has saved the taxpayers $23,355.50. The equalized value of the town in 1921, when he assumed office, was $1,574,251, and now it stands at $1,234,275. Equalization value during his term reached a total of $65,476 in 1926. And in spite of this saving to the taxpayers he has not neglected the town affairs. There was raised, according to the table, in 1921 a total of $6,135 by taxation for highways in the town. In 1926 the amount raised by taxation for town highways was $16,021.45 and the cost to the taxpayers was practically no more.

With approximately the same assessed valuation in 1921 as in 1926 the tax rate was approximately the same, so that under Frederick Davis's administration of town affairs the town has received many benefits without any increase in taxes. The rate in 1921 was $21.63 and in 1926 $22.46. Had it not been for the saving through equalization the tax rate for 1926 would have been $27.75 per thousand instead of $22.46, or a saving of $5.29 per thousand. Had the same amount been raised in 1925 for highway purposes as was raised in 1921 the tax rate for 1925 would have been $15.11 instead of $22.46, a saving of $7.35 per thousand.

Highways and Bridges. Over eight miles of county roads have been constructed at a cost of $99,996 of which the town of Marbletown has paid only $22,200 as its share. In addition to this a fine concrete bridge has been built around the town on the Kingston highway which is now a town charge. This road will cost nearly a quarter million dollars and being constructed through the center of the town will benefit all of the residents.

Since Mr. Davis assumed office there have been rebuilt three bridges in the town. Old antiquated wooden structures have been replaced with modern concrete bridges and the cost to the town has been approximately $2,500. These improvements have been paid for and it is the policy of the present administration to continue this work as rapidly as possible, replacing several others with concrete structures.

Through the efforts of Frederick Davis two building districts have been established in the town, one at High Falls and one at Stone Ridge. Both of these building districts have been heartily approved by the residents of the town.

Town Road Machinery. During his administration the town road machinery equipment has been brought from practically nothing in 1921 to a very modern and efficient state. Mr. Davis is at present a member of the equalization committee of the board of supervisors, an important appointment which is a new member seldom attains. He is also one of the three highway officials. Fraternally Mr. Davis is a member of Kingston Lodge, No. 19, F. & A. M.; Krippelbach Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics; a member of Stone Ridge Grange, Ulster County Farm Bureau and a member of the Stone Ridge Reform

Church. There should be no doubt in the minds of the voters of the town on election day. A vote for Mr. Davis is a vote for the continuation of the present economical, efficient business administration of the town. The bonded indebtedness of the town has been reduced to $14,166. A diplomat is a man who convinces his wife that a woman looks stout in a fur coat.

Mountain Tops Some mountains have a soft clay top, with heavy water-worn. The clay becomes water-soaked through seepage and can no longer hold up the weight. Consequently the slope of the peaks steadily "rolls down" to a less steep inclination, the tremors of the mountain shake down gravel from the top. Mead's mountain and Golden mountain in Colorado are examples.

Canadian Arctic Patrol Completed

of Magnetic Pole. Navigators and It Necessary to Find Their by Judgment Born of Experi- Many Difficulties Encountered.

Nov. 4. (AP)—Canada's Arctic patrol of the Canadian Arctic was a marked success. Carried under most unusual ice and weather conditions, such as the old Arctic navigators now in service seldom experienced, the cruise completed within the schedule of fifty-one days. At Lake Booth, on Baffin Island, a new post also established.

Continuous logs, coupled with the aid of easterly winds and instead of northwest winds in the summer, made navigation of the official party's ship, extremely difficult. In the north of the Arctic waters, north of the magnetic pole, this condition especially true. Here, the navigators had to find their way by means of the compass. Here, the easterly winds packed the ice in dense masses along the coast and in the bays and inlets which precluded the drifting of the ship towards the middle of Davis Strait. In combatting the elements successfully, the "Booth" slowly plowed her way into the Port of Godthaab, Greenland, on the afternoon of July 23. There, the official party received by Governor Rosenkrantz. Many Greenlanders took advantage of the occasion to visit the ship where moving pictures of previous expeditions and of Canadian scenes were shown.

Posts Re-Provisioned. Practically all the islands in the Canadian Arctic archipelago were visited and posts were re-provisioned. A very part of the program which was not completed was the proposed visit to the Canadian Government cache on Melville Island. Owing to the complete closure of Barrow Strait by ice, the ship was unable to reach the cache. The ship was in good health. Hunted it was found, had been good in the year since the previous inspection and the natives were generally supplied with food and clothing.

Devon Harbour, on Devon Island, visited on July 27. In addition, the usual supplies, materials were at this port to enable a detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police to complete repairs to post buildings which had been unroofed by a storm previously in one of the worst storms ever known in the north.

On the Greenland Coast. Leaving on to Craig Harbour, on the northeast shore of Ellesmere Island, it was found that ice blocked the way. Moving up northward into the Sound, Etah, on the Greenland coast, was first touched and a dash, the most anxious piece of the voyage, was made across the ice to Bache Peninsula. The ice crowded back into the fjords and, owing to heavy east winds, eventually the post at Bache Peninsula was reached in safety. Landing her supplies speedily the ship under steam headed for the Strait which connects Buchanan with Smith Sound. Continuing her cruise, by way of Craig Harbour, the ship's head was finally turned to the east, and, after touching at Peopold and Arctic Bay, she headed to Pond Inlet. A call was made at Clyde Inlet and then course of the Booth was directed to Lake Harbour, on the south of Baffin Island, where the post was established. Three days were spent at Lake Harbour, the vessel calling at Port Burin, completed her voyage by returning to North Sydney, N. S.

THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creosote, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creosote is a new discovery with two-fold action; it kills and heals the inflamed membranes which inhibit germ growth. Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creosote contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, kills the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creosote is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is a solvent for building up the system after illness or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Says Women Resemble Ape More Than Man

London.—Woman resembles the ape more than does man, at least so it seems to Dr. Arthur Thomson, eminent British anatomist, professor in that science at Oxford university since 1883. In making his assertion before the Royal Academy of Sciences, Thomson said the basis for his statement was that woman's legs are usually shorter, and her arms longer, than man's. It is only conceit which makes us believe it is not descended from the ape, he contended. Although generations have brought great changes in anatomy, the similarities are too great to be ignored. Furthermore, he contended, a baby, until it can walk, "resembles the ape in nearly every respect."

LONELY ISLAND COLONY TO GET ITS FIRST RADIO SET

Monitory of Life on Desolate Tristan da Cunha to Be Broken by New World Contact.

London.—Interest on both sides of the Atlantic has recently been aroused by the solitude of King George and Queen Mary of England for the welfare and comfort of the least-known and loneliest island colony in the world. Distance blows with the wind from every solitary island; and the romance of Tristan da Cunha is its grandeur of isolation, the struggle for existence of the few inhabitants of its rock-bound shores and the experiences of a sailor who left as a heritage to the island the belief that somewhere amid the rocks is to be found a wealth of pirate treasure. The island is distant from its nearest neighbor, St. Helena, by 1,500 miles, and is far from the path of ships, rarely indeed receiving a visit from the great and busy world.

In 1818, during the war with Great Britain, an English garrison occupied this strategic island. There they found three Americans, one of whom, Jonathan Lambert of Salem, "is reported to have sailed the seas as a buccaner." As a pirate he ran untrue to form, escaping the yard arm and public hangings. The story goes that he came to Tristan in order to board in a secret place the booty of many a rich prize, plundered on the Spanish Main.

Thus the place is invested with the magic spell of a Treasure Island, and to this day, the islanders believe that within its bounds is to be found a rich hoard of doubloons, pieces of eight, or louis d'or. Whether this be true or not, Lambert, when found by the English, was engaged in the peaceful occupation of preparing the skins and oil of seals, with which the shores abounded. These were exchanged for provisions with any passing ships.

The continuous occupation of Tristan da Cunha began, however, in 1817, when William Glass, a corporal of the royal artillery, was left on the island with his wife and two soldiers who had been induced to join them. The island was discovered by a Portuguese, whose name the island bears, in 1506. Today there is a colony of 140 composed of shipwrecked sailors and a few settlers from Cape Town. The people on the island are self-governing and self-supporting. The men are daring seamen and clever carpenters and masons. Physically the island is entirely of volcanic formation.

The social life of the community is limited and the monotonous existence of the inhabitants is rarely broken. The island will soon experience the joys of radio, for early in 1928 the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of France will stop near the island en route to Cape Town, when a powerful set and many other gifts from American and Canadian passengers will be landed on a raft.

Wales Told to Run On and He Moves Along

Folkestone, England.—A Folkestone official is just recovering from the shock of unwittingly asking the prince of Wales to move on.

A young man in an overcoat and wearing his cap at a jaunty angle drove up to the harbor quay the other day just before the arrival of the steamer from Boulogne. When he strolled past the barrier where passports are examined, the official went up to him and asked:

"Are you a visitor?"

"Yes," the young man replied.

"Then I'll have to ask you to go to the other side of the barrier," the official ordered.

"All right," the visitor replied, and walked away.

A minute later another official recognized the young man as the heir to the throne and hurriedly escorted him inside the barrier from which he had just been ejected.

Under Oath Say Schirick Was On Job

UNDER OATHS, SHERIFF RICE AND MISS JEANETTE COSTELLO, FOR 22 YEARS STENOGRAPHER IN THE COURT, TELL OF EXACT NUMBER OF DAYS HE WAS ABSENT—PRESENT MANY DAYS WHEN ASSISTANT WAS ON BENCH—ABSENT WHEN UNDER TREATMENT FOR BLOOD POISONING—ABSENT WHEN FATHER'S DEATH IMPENDED—ALSO AFFIDAVIT BY DR. JOHN G. O'LEARY.

The charge has been made that Harry E. Schirick, when in the office of city judge, did not perform his duties for 119 days during two years of his second term. The charge is made in a public print, to-wit, a newspaper, that he was engaged in politics, personal business or social duties and amenities.

It is one thing to make a charge, or an allegation, or a statement. It is easy for some unknown or unmentioned or anonymous person to say most anything.

It is another thing for a man or a woman, who knows FACTS, to state those facts and swear to them before a notary public. If anybody knows the facts of Judge Schirick's work in the city court, of his attendance at court and his non-attendance, or his reasons for being absent, when he was absent, these two individuals are the two who were closely connected with the work of the court, one of them for eight years, the other for twenty-two years.

Arthur Rice, for nearly a year sheriff of Ulster County, and a man of entire responsibility and unquestioned veracity, was city marshal during the eight years that Judge Schirick was in the city court.

Miss Jeanette V. Costello was stenographer in the city court for twenty-two years, and was clerk of the court during the eight years that Judge Schirick was in the office.

Both of them have personal knowledge of the presence of Judge Schirick in his court during these eight years, of his absence from the court and of the reasons for his absence, when he was absent. They have made a joint affidavit covering the absence of Judge Schirick during the years he spent as Judge of the court.

AFFIDAVIT BY SHERIFF RICE AND MISS COSTELLO

This affidavit is as follows:

STATE OF NEW YORK,

SS.

COUNTY OF ULSTER.

ARTHUR RICE and JEANETTE V. COSTELLO, being duly sworn, depose and say: The said Arthur Rice, that he was City Marshal of the City of Kingston during the eight years that Harry E. Schirick was City Judge of said City of Kingston; and the said Jeanette V. Costello says that for twenty-two years she was stenographer of the City Court and that during the eight years that Harry E. Schirick was Judge of the City Court she was Clerk of the said City Court;

That during the first year that Judge Schirick was Judge of the said City Court that there was an Acting City Judge of said City Court who was paid Five Dollars per day during each day that the City Judge Harry E. Schirick, was absent; disqualified to act or unable to act; that during the first year the Acting City Judge served but thirty-six days.

That under the Charter of the City of Kingston, the Judge was entitled to three weeks' vacation; that during the next five years the said Harry E. Schirick did not take three consecutive weeks of vacation; that his absence from the City Court bench were at times only when he was disqualified to act in any particular case, when there was no business pending for trial before the Court.

That during the two last years of said Harry E. Schirick's service as City Judge, to-wit, the years 1924 and 1925, it has been stated in public print that he had been absent 119 days. That the said deponents, Arthur Rice and Jeanette V. Costello, have gone over the dockets in the City Judge's office and checked the same and from such checking and from their knowledge of the facts herein set forth they do say: that during said two years the Acting City Judge presided at trials either civil or criminal 101 days; that on a great proportion of said days the said Harry E. Schirick was present at the office conducting either a civil case while the Acting City Judge was conducting a criminal case or vice versa; that on many of the occasions that the Acting Judge was presiding at either civil or criminal case the said Harry E. Schirick was conducting an examination in private pursuant to criminal summonses issued, the said system of summonses instead of warrants having been inaugurated by the said Harry E. Schirick in City Court.

That deponents both knew Eastace Schirick, the father of the said Harry E. Schirick. That the said Eastace Schirick died November 22, 1924. That for fully three weeks prior to his death, his death was imminent and daily expected; that during said three weeks or more the said Harry E. Schirick was absent from the City Court except on occasional visits during the day from time to time.

That during the year of 1925 deponents recall that the said Harry E. Schirick was infected with blood poisoning in his wrist and was for four weeks disabled and unable to attend to the duties of the office excepting occasional days; that during the years 1924 and 1925 he did not take three consecutive weeks' vacation; that when the said Harry E. Schirick was absent from City Court it was on occasions when his presence was not required or when the work was the lightest.

That during the said two years, 1924 and 1925, under the Charter of the City of Kingston the Acting City Judge was paid a salary of $500.00 per year whether he acted as Judge of the City Court or whether he did not act.

That during the said eight years that the said Harry E. Schirick served as City Judge of the City of Kingston for the first time in the history of City Court and Recorder's Court he inaugurated the practice of holding jury trials at night for the reason that the fee of jurors was but twenty-five cents for service as a juror in civil cases and the fee for jurors in criminal cases was nothing; that the said Harry E. Schirick also during a portion of that period was likewise Judge of Children's Court and held Children's Court at night and whenever it interfered with the Children's attendance at school.

ARTHUR RICE.
JEANETTE V. COSTELLO.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 3rd day of November, 1927.

HENRY BERNSTEIN,
Notary Public.

AFFIDAVIT BY DR. JOHN G. O'LEARY.

Touching on the matter of the absence of Judge Schirick from his office during the time referred to by Sheriff Rice and Miss Costello, when they aver he was ill and under the care of a doctor, Dr. John G. O'Leary, one of the best known physicians and surgeons in the city, and from the time he first came to Kingston to the present day, personal friend of Judge Schirick, submits the following affidavit, to the effect that he had treated and operated on Judge Schirick, who was suffering with blood poisoning:

STATE OF NEW YORK,

SS.

COUNTY OF ULSTER.

JOHN G. O'LEARY of No. 131 Fair Street, Kingston, New York, being duly sworn, deposes and says: That he is a duly licensed and practicing physician of the State of New York and during the several years last past has practiced his profession in the City of Kingston.

That during the year 1925 deponent attended Harry E. Schirick at No. 193 Downs Street for blood poisoning; that the said Harry E. Schirick had blood poisoning in his left wrist; that the said Harry E. Schirick was under deponent's care and attention covering a period of four consecutive weeks; that deponent operated on said Harry E. Schirick for blood poisoning two times; that during said four weeks, the said Harry E. Schirick was during said time, confined to his home except on several occasions deponent permitted the said Harry E. Schirick to go down to the City Hall.

JOHN G. O'LEARY.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 3rd day of November, 1927.

HENRY BERNSTEIN,
Notary Public.

AN EVIDENCE OF PEOPLE'S SATISFACTION.

Judge Schirick was as conscientious a judge as the city court ever had. He was elected in 1917 to the office with a majority of 378. After having served as City Judge for four years, he was renominated and so satisfactory was his first term to the people that his majority was 4,482. He said at that time that he would serve his second term and that it would be as satisfactory as the first term to the people, and that he would not accept another nomination. He kept his word.

He was entirely satisfactory to the people as city judge. He will be equally as satisfactory to them as mayor. Elect him and see.

"DRESSY" DRESSINGS

In warm weather there is no food more appetizing, wholesome and attractive than a good salad. Almost anything edible may be used in a salad, so there is no excuse for throwing away any small amounts of left-over vegetable or meat.

When serving salad for a company dinner it need not be especially nourishing, for the menu is usually a full one. Something pleasant, appealing and crisp and green is most desirable. The following are a few to be served as a simple green, varied by the different dressings:

Thousand Island Dressing.—Take one-half cupful of oil, the juice of one-half a lemon and half an orange, one teaspoonful of scraped or grated onion, three teaspoonfuls of chopped parsley, one-fourth teaspoonful of mustard, eight olives sliced, one teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, one-half cupful of mayonnaise, one-fourth teaspoonful of salt and the same of paprika. Mix the dry ingredients, dissolve them in the fruit juices, put all together into a fruit jar. Adjust the rubber and top and shake until the mixture is smooth. Set in the ice-box to keep cold until the time comes to serve. Another shaking and pour over the salad, or crisp lettuce.

A good way to serve French dressing, which is the simplest of all salad dressings, is to put the ingredients in a bottle, set in the ice chest after shaking well, then shake again before serving. The dressing is usually liked with three parts of oil to one of lemon juice, a pinch of salt and sugar, cayenne and dry mustard if liked. One may vary this recipe by the addition of different seasonings, and foods.

East Indian Dressing.—Add one-fourth teaspoonful of curry powder and one-third of a cupful of chutney or chopped pickle to one cupful of mayonnaise or French dressing.

Roquefort Cheese Dressing.—Grate or crumble a two-inch square of Roquefort cheese into a cupful of French dressing. Serve on lettuce or endive.

Velvet Has First Place in Evening Wraps, But Furs, Brocades and Some Interesting Coats of the Tailored Genre Are Not to be Denied.

New York—Although the luxurious velvet, fur-trimmed evening wrap must be given first place this winter, a word must be said for evening wraps of metallic brocade, and those which subtly suggest a tailored effect. It is no strain on the memory to recall the really tailored evening coats of a few seasons ago, evening gowns that were cut on lines almost identical with one's bath robe. How smart they were, too!

Now we are inclined to forget the lure of simplicity, and to find virtue only in that which is exceedingly elaborate, or at all events formal. It is therefore refreshing to discuss a model bearing a Berthe label, and made of metallic cloth in a harmonious plaided effect, the colors being three tones of gold and one of silver, offset by revers and cuffs of black velvet. The most unusual de-tall of this remarkable wrap was that it was so obviously inspired by a tailored suit.

No record of what is what in evening wraps would be complete without including not only fur coats, but velvet capes and silk shawls. While interest has waned a bit in shawls of the embroidered type, the Spanish manton, like the Mandarin coat, is a classic and may always be worn. Squares, however, are more chic than the more usual shawl. Plain bordered lame squares or oblongs find favor, since they may be hugged about the figure in such a way as to pass for a dolman, blousing at the back.

White fur on black or richly-hued velvet is a familiar, but fashionable note. Evening wraps should suggest the ensemble. Several are in amber and honey tones, lavishly trimmed with red fox or with brown fur of one sort or another.

Growing Children Need Vitamins

It is all important for the welfare of the young child and his normal progress in growth and health—the formation of a strong bone structure, that the body be kept adequately vitamin-nourished.

The handicap that so often hinders the normal progress of children, is a failure to obtain from the daily diet a full quota of essential vitamins, the kind that abound in emulsified cod-liver oil, as in Scott's Emulsion.

To children who are pale, under-weight, inclined to weak, soft bones or rickets, and who evidently are not obtaining the needed vitamins, give emulsified cod-liver oil in the form of

Train for Evening Gown on Paris Fashion Card

Almost any hem just so it is uneven, is the French idea for winter evening dresses says a Paris fashion correspondent.

Skirts which started out by being slightly irregular a few months ago, are now so exaggeratedly uneven that they may touch the floor in front, or they may dip downward on one side only.

The long point belted in an accepted and often seen version of the uneven hem. Occasionally the point lengthens into a train. Sometimes there are two points and two trains, and the unevenness is to be seen on velvet frocks. They glide along in an amusing fashion and the modern young woman who has never worn a train is almost sure to be fascinated by them. Dressmakers report a gratifying number of orders for the trained dresses in their collection.

PILL-TAKER FREED FROM HIS HABIT

ALL-BRAN brought natural relief from chronic constipation

Constipation is almost a universal curse—father of more than forty diseases. Yet there is real assurance in Mr. Ladue's letter:

"After sixteen years of taking pills, it cured me. If the millions of people that suffer from constipation only knew what Kellogg's ALL-BRAN would do, some of the pill-makers would go out of business. Every doctor should recommend it. I tell all that I know so that they can get the joy out of life I am getting since I started on Kellogg's ALL-BRAN 3 months ago."

Mr. J. L. LADUE
Burlington, Vt.
Hollow cheeks, pimples, listlessness are some of the symptoms. Don't risk it another day. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to relieve constipation. Two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.

Delicious with milk or cream—and add fruits or honey. Use in cooking. Comes ready to eat. Sold and served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Recipes on package.

BE A LITTLE "GREEN!"

By EVELYN GAGE BROWNE

IT DOESN'T matter where you go. You're bound to meet the chap who thinks that what he doesn't know isn't worth a rap.

But there's a lot to learn, and so it's easy to be seen. That just as all things green must grow.

We must be a little "green."

FOR THE GOOSE—

TO A worrisome woman, even a diamond is only one more thing to worry about.

When your girl friend starts ravin' about her new boyish bob, remember the fox that got his tail cut off in the trap, went around sayin' how much cooler it was.

The darlingest mole in the world, once it starts gettin' big, is nothin' but a wart.

FOR THE GANDER—

If you loan a woman money and don't leave her pay you back, she is insulted. But if you do, she is disappointed.

When a girl starts treatin' you bad, you gotta consider seriously whether to leave her walk on you, or tell her where she gets off.

It all depends on whether you want to be discarded from strength or weakness.

Do You Know

...?? That: ...??

THE expression "eavesdropper" had its origin in Saxon times when the owners of private estates were not allowed to cultivate their possessions to the extremity, but were obliged to leave a space for the eaves. This space was known as the eaves-drip. An eavesdropper is one who stands under the eaves-drip, or near a window or door of the house to overhear what is being said inside the house.

And so "eavesdropper" has come to denote one who listens secretly to what is told in private.—Anna S. Turnquist.

An empire is usually of greater extent than a kingdom, and always comprises a variety in the nationality of, or the form of administration in, constituent and subordinate portions. Often an empire has included a number of kingdoms, as was the case with the late German empire.

Who Is Judge Schirick?

HARRY E. SCHIRICK, the Democratic Candidate for Mayor of the City of Kingston, was born in the Town of Ulster, Ulster County, New York. Most of his life has been spent in the City of Kingston. He was graduated from Kingston High School and from the Cornell Law School. He was elected City Judge of the City of Kingston when the office of Recorder and City Judge were consolidated, and the office so consolidated came to be known as City Court of the City of Kingston. He served the City of Kingston as City Judge for eight years. The term of City Judge under the consolidation act was four years. The people of the City of Kingston so appreciated the record he had made in City Court and the attention he had given to his office that they re-elected him a second time by a majority of 4,482!

The forces opposed to ex-Judge Schirick's election as Mayor of the City of Kingston have insinuated that, if elected, he would not devote his entire time to the duties of Mayor. The persons constituting those forces are oblivious to a local law passed in 1927 which provides that:

"He (the mayor) shall devote substantially all of his time to the duties of office."

Not only does the law require that the Mayor shall devote all of his time to the duties of the office but Judge Schirick has stated over his signature, and this statement has been published, that he would, if elected, be found working day in and day out for Kingston and for its best interests and the best interests of the people of the city. He will devote all of his time to the office.

Judge Schirick's social affiliations are as follows: He is a member of the Masons (Kingston Lodge, No. 10, F. & A. M.), Franklin Lodge, Knights of Pythias, No. 37, Kingston B. P. O. E., No. 550, American Mechanics (Charles DeWitt Council, No. 91), Independent Order of Odd Fellows (Aretas Lodge, No. 172), and the Kingston Club.

He is a member of the English Lutheran Church of the Redeemer.

Electric Chair Faces Carpenter

King's County Jury Convicts Norwegian Carpenter of Murdering
Woman in Cellar of Her Brooklyn
Lodging House in July.

New York, Nov. 4 (P).—The spectacle of the electric chair today hovered before a stolid 35-year-old Norwegian carpenter who stands convicted of killing a Brooklyn landlady, one of the two women he is accused of slay-ing with an axe and distributing their dismembered bodies over parts of two boroughs of the city.

Ludwig Halverson Lee yesterday beard a jury which had deliberated three and one-half hours in Kings county court pronounce him guilty of murder in the first degree. He will be sentenced November 14 to die for killing Mrs. Selma Bennett, 48-year-old mother of four children, July 9, in the cellar of the Brooklyn lodging house which she owned.

Lee was also indicted but not tried for the murder of Miss Sarah E.
Brownell, 69, keeper of the rooming house, parts of whose dismembered body were also found by detectives in the basement of the house.

Robbery was established by police as the motive for the double murder.
Police believe Lee killed Miss Brownell first and Mrs. Bennett several days later when she inadvertently discovered the first murder. Lee revealed that he had refused Miss Brownell's offer to marry him and had become caretaker of the rooming house after he had lost $500 she gave him with which to start a restaurant business.

Cadet Edwin J. Messinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob L. Messinger of 67 West Union street, Kingston, N.

newly organized Plebe football team of the United States Military Acad-singer, who attended the Kingston High School and the New York Military Academy at Cornwall, N. Y., before entering the Military Academy, plays the position of right end.

The Plebe, or freshman, team of the West Pointers has a schedule of six games against outside teams. In addition it works against the varsity in practice.

Although the Plebe team lost its opening game against the New York University freshmen, it has won the remainder of its games so far. The Plebe team is counted on to furnish material for next year's varsity team.

Bloomington Boys Haled to Court

The residents of the village of Bloomington were disturbed Halloween night by a gang of youths who travelled about the village doing considerable damage to property and in the process, hurling stones.
Several places persons seated in their homes narrowly escaped injury by the stones of a complaint was made, and as a result, some of the gang were rounded up and Judge Fowler held a session in children's court.
Due to a particularly bad gang of youths doing injury to property about the village in the past, it has been the customary thing for the sheriff to pay a visit to the village and issue a warning to the youths prior to Halloween. This year the warning was not heeded, and as a result court proceedings followed.

Rains Followed by Snow Flurries in Widely Separated Sections of New York—Falls to Remain on Ground.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 4 (P).—The torrential rains that caused extensive flood damage in eastern New York and New England were followed today by snow flurries in widely separated sections of New York state.

Tupper Lake, in the Adirondacks, reported a three-inch fall after thirty hours' continuous rain.

At Jamestown, in the western end of the state; Ithaca, in the Finger Lakes region; Binghamton, on the southern tier, and Oneonta, in the Susquehanna, each reported the first snow of the season, although in none of these places did the snow remain upon the ground.

Snowfall, in The Catskills

Ulster & Delaware trains arriving here today bore evidence of snowfall in the Catskill mountain districts.
Snow fell in the area between Phoen-

Saturday Plans At the Y.M.C.A.

Expected after the annual meeting of the Y.M.C.A. on Saturday the activities of the Y.M.C.A. will be in full swing. The Y.M.C.A. will have a hike to the fire observation tower just outside the city. The boys will hike to the tower under the leadership of the Y.M.C.A. College Department Team and some of the Kingston City High members. They plan to take their lunches with them and to have a good time on the hike. They will return to the city in time to attend the football game between the high school and Middletown High.

The Friendly Indians group will meet directly after the hike Saturday and go out to the Y's Men's camp at Glenview where they will hold an encampment and initiation ceremony. Every Friendly Indian should be on the job on Saturday morning.

The Froeseers will meet and go on the hike with the Rutgers College fellows.

Following the football game the Kingston City Club will entertain the Middletown team with light refreshments. Every player who gets into the game is expected to attend as well as the officials and coaches.

Couldn't Hang Murderer
John Lee, the Bahamian murderer, murdered Miss Keyse on November 12, 1884. He was to be executed at eight o'clock February 23, 1885, at Exeter gaol. At the first attempt to hang Lee the drop in the scaffold would not work. The prisoner was removed to the prison and the official tried to remedy the defect. A second and a third attempt were made to hang him, but each time the apparatus would not work. The sheriff then ordered the execution stopped pending communication with the home secretary. It was found later that rain on the preceding days had caused the planks of the drop to swell. At the time there was much public interest in this case, many ignorant and superstitious persons claiming that there had been an intervention by supernatural powers. John Lee was subsequently reprieved and imprisoned.—London Mail.

Dr. Landes is one of the foremost Sunday school leaders of the world. As the official representative of the World's Sunday School Association, he has visited most of the countries of the world, has made numerous visits to England and the continent of Europe and has made two round-the-world journeys in the interest of religious education.

Prior to his entry upon the World's work, Dr. Landes was for eighteen years the general secretary of the Pennsylvania Sabbath School Association and so guided it that it became the foremost state in the Union in organized Sunday school work. Dr. Landes, therefore, brings to his new task long and wide experience in interdenominational Sunday school work. He is a fine administrator, an exceptional platform man, and possesses a charm of personality which makes friends for both himself and his work.

Dr. Landes entered upon his new responsibility on November 1, with headquarters at 80 Howard street, Albany. By arrangement with the state executive committee, Dr. Landes retains his membership on the program committee of the World's Sunday School Convention, scheduled for Los Angeles, July 11-18, 1928. He will doubtless lead a large delegation from New York state to Los Angeles by special train.

New Secretary for S. S. Association

The World's Sunday School Association announces the retirement of Elmer Yelton as its general secretary and the election of his successor, Dr. W. G. Landes, of New York City, who for five years has efficiently served the World's Sunday School Association as executive secretary. Mr. Yelton retires on his own initiative because of health conditions requiring a protracted rest. He carried with him the love and esteem of the Sunday school workers of the Empire State.

DR. W. G. LANDES.

Dr. Landes is one of the foremost Sunday school leaders of the world. As the official representative of the World's Sunday School Association, he has visited most of the countries of the world, has made numerous visits to England and the continent of Europe and has made two round-the-world journeys in the interest of religious education.

LAST NIGHT on the RADIO

Another evening of fair reception without the slightest evidence of the Ham-Buzz being longer in existence. The static element must have been only about his ear but when he or at least administered an ointment that has produced a lasting effect. There was no static, volume was slightly less than Wednesday evening and there was some fading.

The coffee, pie and cake program were good, the singing was in good voice, the opera singers hit all the high spots possible for a vocal symphony to hit and it was possible to hear music that was as far away as North Worth, so it is a very unusual feat for who does not feel pleased. Even the bloopers were mild, few and far between.

Commemorating the 72nd anniversary of the birth of Eugene V. Debs, the late Socialist and labor leader after whom Station WEDV has been named, the station will broadcast Saturday night at 9:20 an address by Charles W. Ervin, former managing editor of the New York Call and bosom friend of the late leader for years. The station was formally opened last month on the date of Debs' death.

The complete series of matinee concerts by the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra will be broadcast during the coming winter season by the Stromberg-Carlson Station WHAM at Rochester, beginning November 14, from 3:15 to 5 o'clock. More than 100 artists will participate in the first general Motors Family Party radio hour, next Monday evening, November 7, at 8:30 eastern standard time. The program will be broadcast by WEDV from the Music Chamber of Carnegie Hall over 27 stations—the largest hook-up for a regular weekly series. WEDV will be one of this chain.

Strawberry Tree

Apart from naturalists and botanists there are probably few people who are aware of the existence of the strawberry tree, as distinct from the strawberry plant.

Yet there is such a tree. It usually bears flowers about the end of September or beginning of October, and along with the flowers are found the fruits of the previous year.

The fruit is a large orange-red berry, closely resembling the strawberry; hence the name of the tree.

The strawberry tree is not a native of England, and in this country is seldom found outside parks and gardens, but in Ireland it is frequently found growing wild, especially in the neighborhood of Killarney.
